In New York on Friday night after two hours' deliberation the jury found Ameor Ben Ali, accused of having billed and mutilated Carrie Brown, alias "Shakespeare" guilty of murder in the second degree, for which the punishment is imprisonment for life. The strange verdict in the case is said to have been for the reason that no premeditation was shown to have existed on the part of the marketer. of the murderer.

Bobert Salinger, president of the United German Petroleum Works. Louis Levisohn, the largest coal oil dealer in Berlin, and other German coal oil dealers, both whole-sie and retail, believe that the Standard Oil Company, having aborbed that the Standard Oil importing houses in Germany, will now try to gain control of the jobbing trade and then of the retail business of the country. They also believe that the Rothchilds' wells will be absorbed by the monopoly.
